ABOUT THE REVIEW

The Staff Editor and Student Editorial Board of 'The University of Western Australia Law Review' invite you to become a subscriber.

'The Review', circulated bi-annually, was first published in 1948 and has the distinction of being one of Australia's oldest university law journals.

WHY SUBSCRIBE?

- High calibre contributors to 'The Review' are drawn from leading local, interstate and international practitioners and academics.
- Articles examine issues chosen both for their topicality as well as for their enduring significance.
- While national and international topics are addressed, 'The Review' provides a distinctively West Australian perspective.
- The practical commentaries on significant new developments in Australian case and statute law constitute an effective resource for keeping up-to-date with the latest developments, particularly those with a local flavour.

CONTRIBUTORS

Contributions are made by distinguished judges, academics and practitioners. Recent contributors include:

- Gough Whitlam
Prime Minister 1973-1975
- Sir Garfield Barwick
Chief Justice, High Court of Australia 1964-1981
- Sir Francis Burt
Governor of WA 1990-1993
